

CLARE of Assisi: Light for Identity, Community and Humanity

Painting Photographed in Assisi 1998 by Stella DeVenuta, OSF

Original Artist Unknown

Working and dwelling at a place called Santa Clara we use her name everyday.
But how many of us have developed a personal understanding or relationship to her life?
Turning to her, we investigate her unique consciousness, her leadership and her life to discover more deeply how it might shape SCU's identity, our relations with one another and our work in the world.

Join moderator Jean Molesky-Poz, Religious Studies
& guests Penelope Duckworth, Keith Warner, OFM, Margie Will, OSF & SCU Students for a lively symposium on our University's namesake

Thursday, February 19, 2009

4:00-6:00 pm

St. Clare Room

Santa Clara University

Library and Learning Commons 3rd floor

Free and Open to the Public. Reception to follow.

The above programs are made possible by the Ignatian Center for Jesuit Education, Discover Program, an Identity Grant from the Provost's Council on Inclusive Excellence, the Center of Performing Arts, the Departments of Religious Studies, Modern Languages and Women and Gender Studies. If you require a reasonable accommodation, please call 408-554-5542 48 hours prior to the event.